WHAT THIS PROGRAMME TEACHES YOU

If you are detail-orientated and enjoy being creative, this combination is perfect for you if you also love to bake.

This one-year programme will give you the fundamental knowledge and skills to create beautiful and delicious bakery products, from various types of breads and pies, to cakes and biscuits. The four courses that make up this certificate give you plenty of a hands-on opportunities in our professional kitchens, using commercial machinery, for real-life situations. You'll be learning from highly experienced tutors with more than 30 years of experience as bakers, managers and product developers.

WHERE THIS PROGRAMME CAN TAKE YOU

Baking is more popular than ever and bakers are on New Zealand's Skill Shortage List. The range of potential employers is nearly endless, so you can work for a local business or start your own specialty shop. If travel is appealing, this qualification can help take you around the world working in bakeries, shops, cafés or tourism operations like cruise ships.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

You will need to have NCEA Level 2 or a New Zealand qualification in level 3 baking or cookery.

If you are 20 years or older and do not meet the academic entry requirements above, but have skills, education or work experience to indicate that you have a reasonable chance of success, you may be eligible for special admission.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS

Evidence of English language competency must be provided if English is not your first language.

*Fees are applicable to study in 2017 and are indicative only; fees will vary depending on the courses selected, and/or course-related costs where applicable.
